Mr. Hudson Brennick

DEDICATION

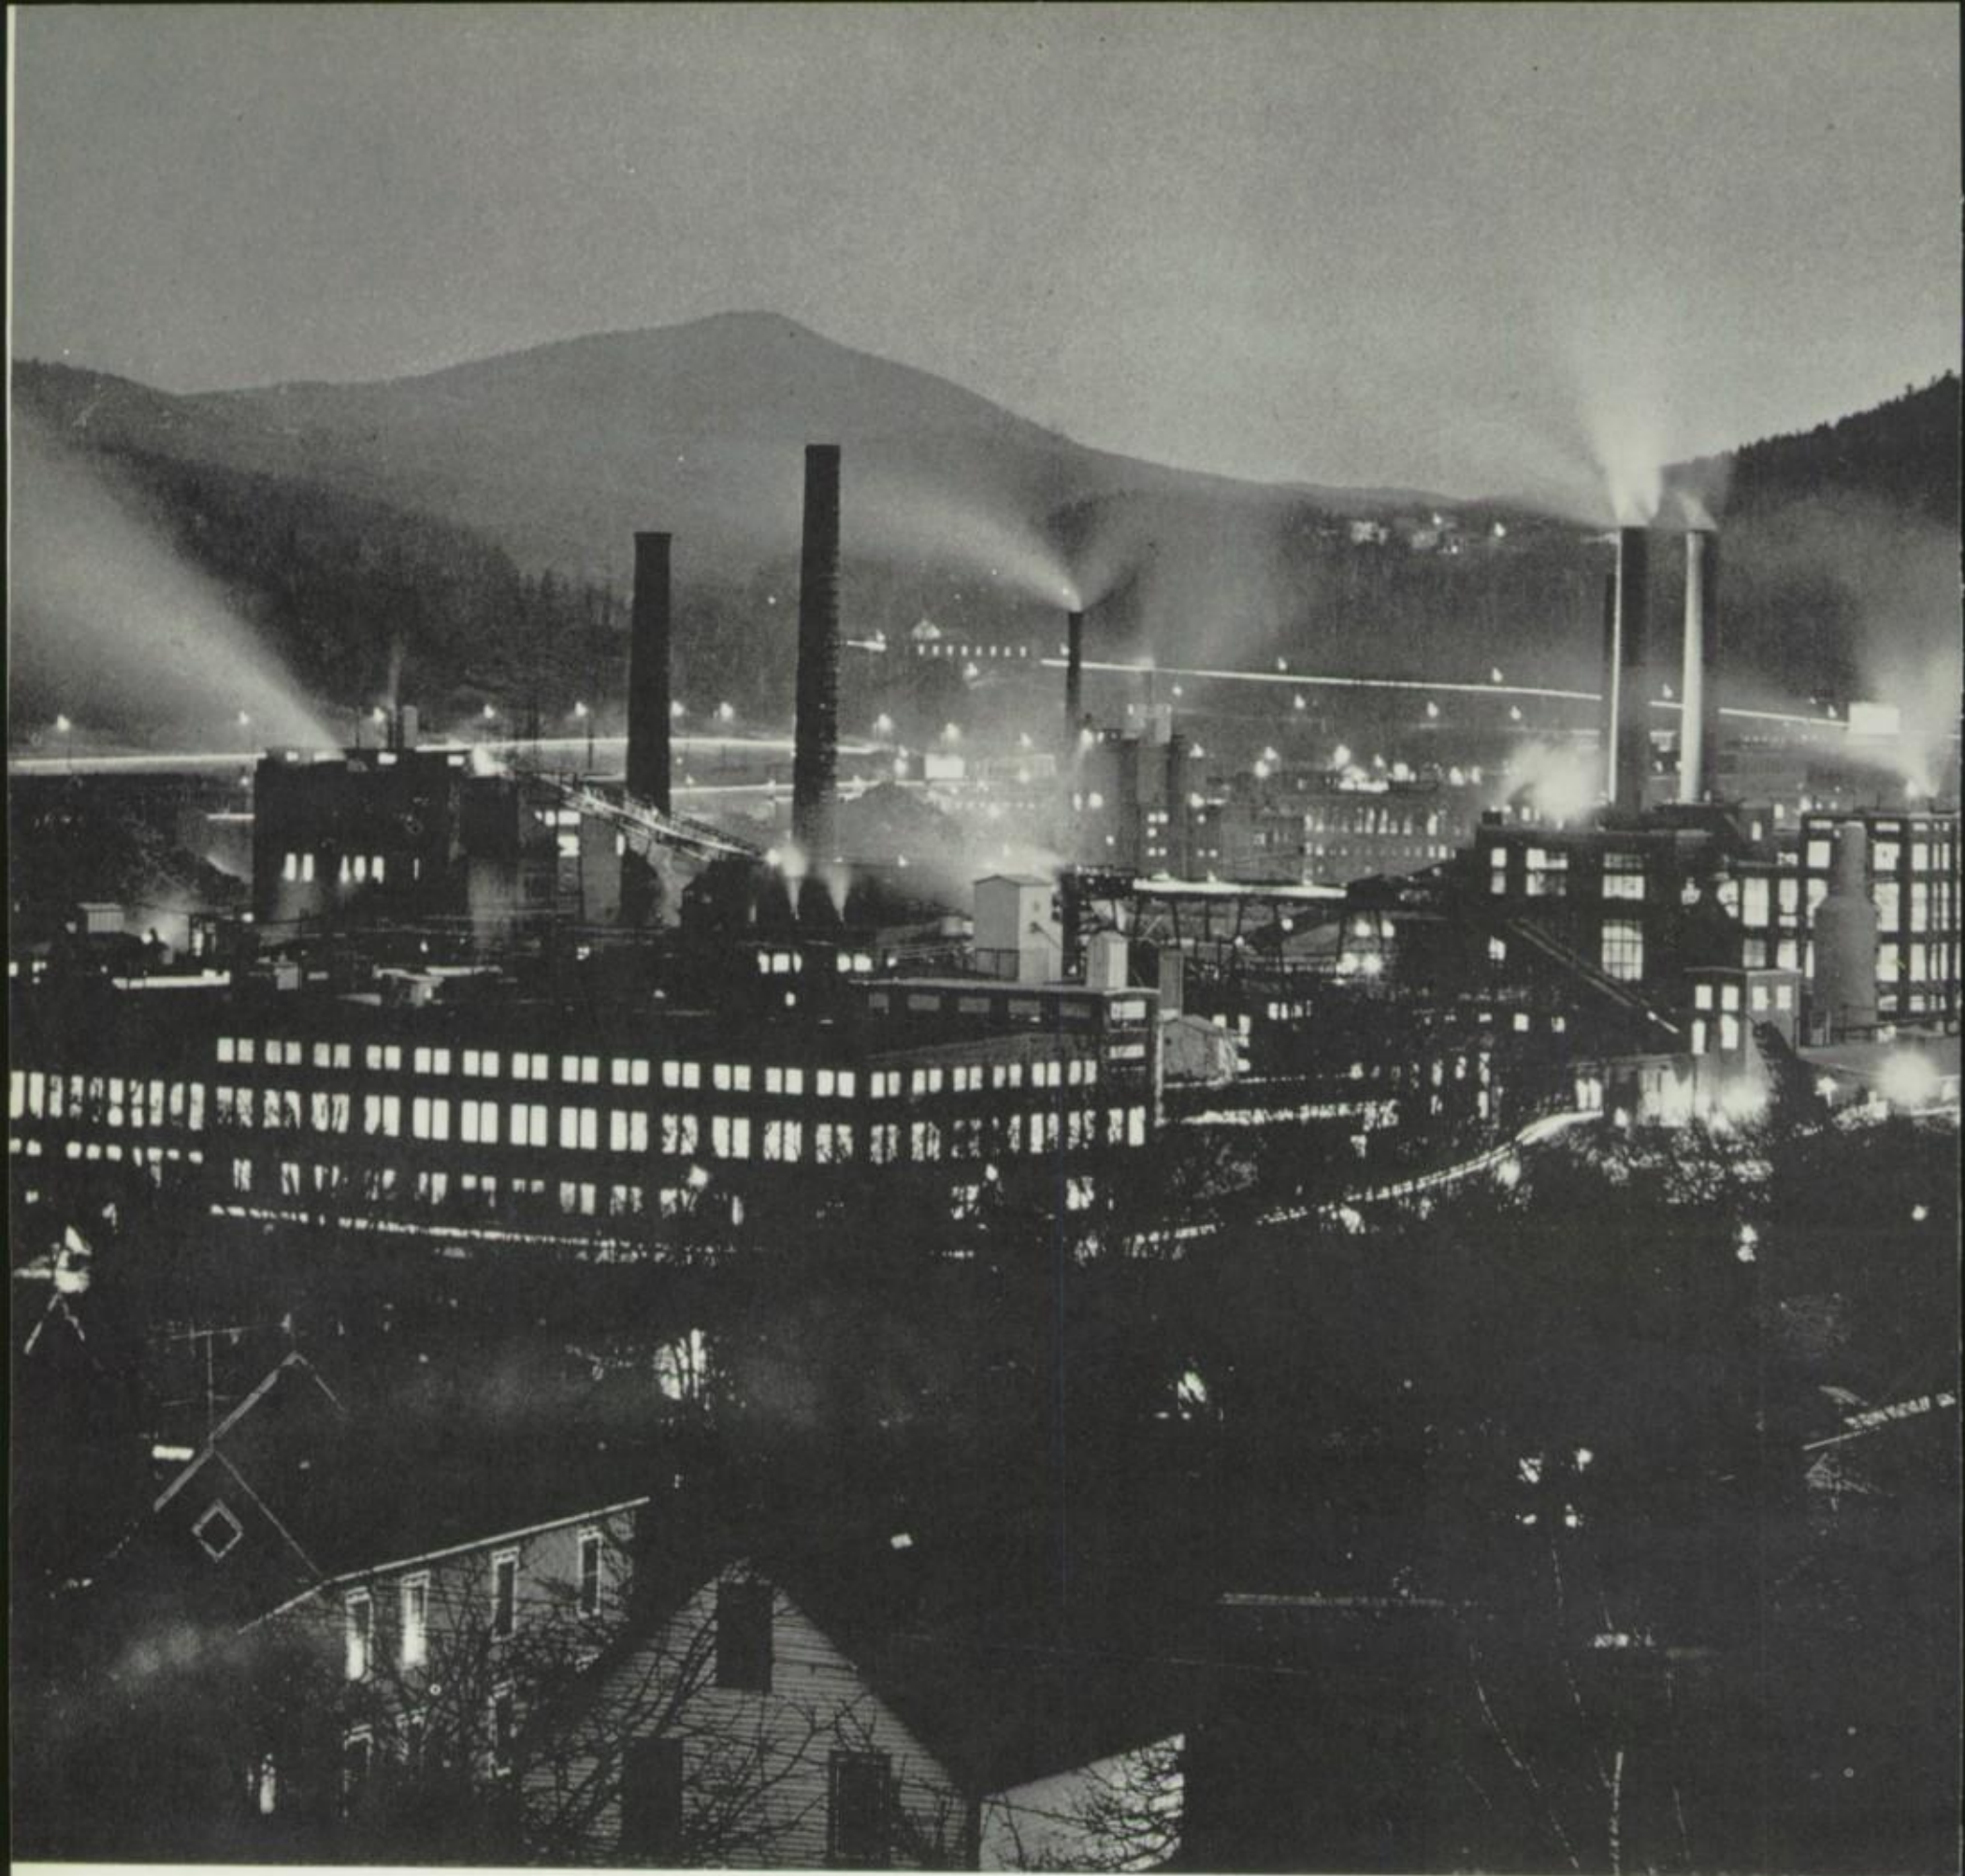

Because for four years our troubles and triumphs have been his as well as ours . . .

Because his keen interest in our class has been truly beneficial . . .

Because he has given much of his time to our school activities, and because this is the best way we the class of '61 know to tell him that Stephens has meant more to us we dedicate the TRIBUTE to . . .

Junior Achievement

Sponsored by the Oxford Paper Company for the students of the area high schools, the Junior Achievement is organized for the purpose of having the teen-agers get some experience in the many facets of making and selling a product.

The Junior Achievement company of 1960-61 was placed in a more advantageous position than groups of former years because of its much larger membership. There were 47 students participating this year. The company adopted the corporation name of Tenn Specialties. Because of the number of participants, it was found necessary to manufacture a variety of items in order to employ each member profitably. Engraved name plates, house numbers, and other miscellaneous signs were the main products. Others were jewelry items and braided rugs. The company also supplemented its income by packing and distributing Civil Defense pamphlets.

Mr. Parkside

Our Senior Play, "Jenny Kissed Me," was presented December 8 before a capacity audience. This comedy in three acts, directed by Mrs. Edward Warner, depicted the development of Jenny from a naive teen-ager to a mature young woman who was engaged to marry Michael Saunders. This was accomplished because of (or in spite of) Father Moynihan, who, "aided" by Owen Parkside, converted Jenny into a "hep chick."

"Let's talk about something more pleasant. Me, for example."

"Now, Jenny Darling, of course, you'll stay."

Senior Play

"I suppose, Miss Stearns, this is for me?"

"I'm having no difficulty in seeing Shirley."

WINTER

A final spurt of speed as skier crosses finish line.

While skiers schussed down the side of Black Mountain on the new Pennacook Park ski area in competition for the Western Maine Class B Championship (won by Stephens), many students gathered at the high school making final decoration arrangements, counting last minute returns of ticket sales and breathlessly waiting for the announcement of the winning class's queen candidate who would be crowned as Carnival Queen and who would reign at the annual Winter Carnival Dance.

Carol Hallee, Iris Wing, and Pete Burgum put finishing touches on the queen's throne.

Senior queen candidate Sylvia Gagnon on the morning of the carnival in informal attire.

Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors wait in the gym for the announcement of the carnival queen.

If we had only a few more dollars . . . like a couple hundred maybe.

Varsity Football

Stephens High School 1960 Varsity Football Squad.

Plagued by many crippling injuries to starting linemen and first string back-field men, Mike Puiia's Panthers collected two wins and one tie while losing six, two by one touchdown.

Along with several steady seniors, underclassmen who turned in fine performances during the '60 season were Halfbacks Steve Gaudet and Leo Provencher, together with "Kip" Coughlin, quarterback.

Managerial duties were handled by R. Marcoux and Laurier Belanger. Helping Head Coach Puiia were E. Turmelle and newcomer G. Stinson.

Coaches R. Arsenault, E. Turmelle, M. Puiia and G. Stinson plan strategy during practice session.

Panthers gridmen are set to run through play during practice session.

Gaudet goes for ten around end.

Gaudet (again) reaches for a pass.

Getting some un-Official help, Lewiston linemen slow down Gaudet (not again!)

Picks hole in LHS line.

Stephens' back plunges over Mexico.

Lewiston Blue Devils fail to penetrate Stephens' stalwart line.

R-U-M-F-O-R-D! Rah!

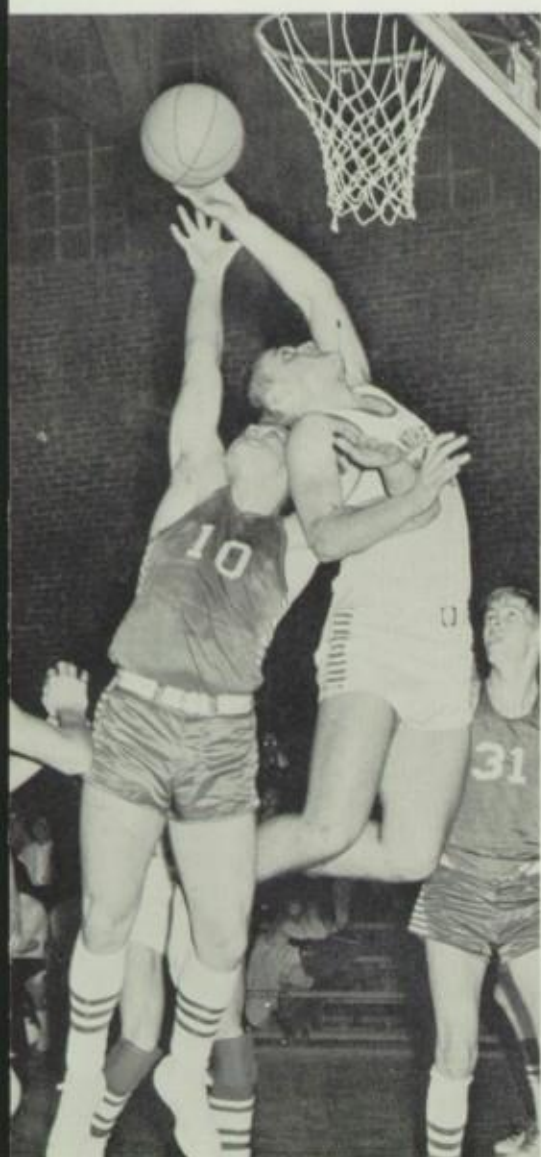

At season's end Coach Puiia distributes letters.

The Jayvee Basketball Team has had an unusually successful season this year winning 18 games and losing only one. If the team continues to improve next year, the prospects for an excellent varsity squad are good.

Two more for Martin as the Panthers win again.

Sink it, "Kip."

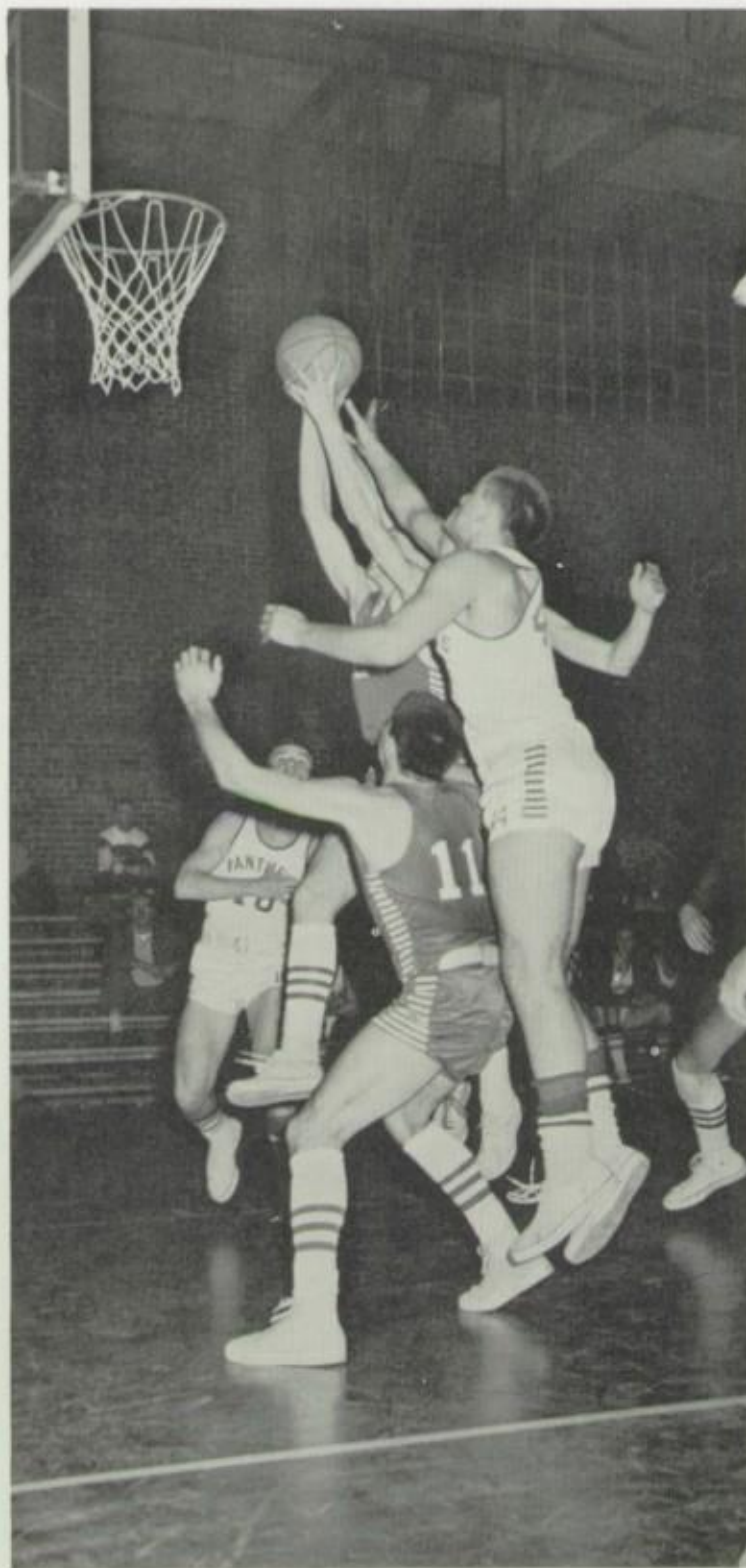

Fight for that rebound, Bob.

WESTERN MAINE CLASS LL TOURNAMENT

Finishing fourth in the Western Maine League, Stephens earned a trip to the Portland Expo, the site of the Class LL Tournament. The Panthers were matched to play South Portland. Both teams played exceptionally well, but because Stephens hit only 7 of 25 shots from the free throw line, they lost 61 to 64.

Returning next year are seven juniors all of whom have had a good deal of experience.

Stephens and South Portland in the tournament "Battle of the Boards."

Louise, happiest girl
in the H.S. It's sure going to be dull without
you. Good luck in the future.
Arthur Sanchez

Louise

I hated study Halls
'til I got you in it —
now they are a riot!
Too bad you have to leave. Maybe someday
I'll take care of you
in the hospital — after a minor mishap. Who knows maybe I'll bring you — — — into this glorious world.

Well anyway I wish you luck and
happiness — and please
keep that jolly laugh,
and sense of humor.

A. F. A.

Jennifer (Jett)

Louise,

So the best-natured kid in Stephens. We certainly have had some roaring
times in 5th period study
hall! I bet you go!
Best of luck in everything
you do!

A. L. A.
Marie

"Louise"
Remember the dance
at St. James Hall!
I, too, we went over to the Municipal Building to the dance
skipping up the middle of the road in the snow. The 6 of us certainly had fun that night.
The best of luck
Tommy
